General proved but an ephemeral favourite, and his star quickly set in ridicule and coutempt. The cause of the Bonapaures had long been regarded as hopeless. The sad death in Zululand of the PRINCE IMPERIAL and later that of Prince Junoue Napoleon S. WATSON & CO., LIMITED, left at the head of the party a young and unknown scion of the house, whose personality has never engaged much attention in France, and who has had little opportunity of making any public appearance. Stories have been current, too, of Prince VICTOR NAPOLEON sowing not a few wild onts, but Frenchmen are not prone to criticise too harshly the morals of their rulers. Nor have any of the Bonapaures been models of pro-VANILLA. priety in this respect. General Boulangen's eclipse, again, did not result from his loose living; his fall was due to the ridicule which the military hero of the populace, was worsted by a civilian. It is not the moral lackes of the royal and imperialist pretenders that have weakenthe Indian currency would be under the sysed their cause or made the strength of the Republic. The great mass of Frenchmen desired a stable form of Government under which they could make money and prosper. Neither of the other factions promised the same degree of stability as the Republic. Originally, from 1870 to to 1879, when M. GREVY succeeded Marshal McManon in the presidential chair, the Remonometallism and bimetallism there is publican administration was one of compromise, but as rears rolled on it became more firmly rooted, and though one cabinet succeeded another in startlingly rapid succesin sufficient quantities to provide the prinsion, the party grew stronger and stronger in only as subsidiary coinage. In England the Legislative Assembly, and the Wilson the due relation in the quantities of gold scandal, which at length in 1887 brought about the downfall of his father-in-law M GESYY, had no effect on the Republic the same ond is secured by the circumstance which under the presidency of M. SADI Carnor became yet more securely established. The present President, by his tact the gold coins and that the quantity cannot moderation, and blameless life, has done much to popularise the Republic and create gold standard for India it is proposed that such a belief in its permanence that the the standard should be fixed in one metal Vatican has formally recognised it and while the other metal furnishes the circulatorded the Roman Catholic clergy to do so. thus apparently destroying the last hope of ing medium. Mr. Mackay estimates that the Orleanists. But popular as the Republic has become among Frenchmen, and and is of opinion that this quantity firmly anchored as it may seem to be, it is quite possible with that excitable race for a sudden gust of passion or a popular outery any violent effect on the relative values of the two metals. This position will o capsize the vessel of state. The gross scandal attending the Panama Canal unnot bear examination. All the uncoined silver in India would be reduced in value dertaking brought to light by recent revelutions has done someth ng to upset the faith by depriving it of its potential character as of the French in their public men, and it is money, while the demand for £15,000,000 impossible to say to what extent prominent worth of gold could not fail, in the present Republican politicians may be implicated in state of the market for that metal, to cause a further appreciation in its value. IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

THE CASE OF ILLEGAL DETENTION

In this case His Lordship delivered judgment. Mr. Hustings (Messrs. Wotton and Deacon's office) represented the plaintiff Loung Wil Sui. and Mr. Phillippo represented the defendants Choy Sai Hing and Wai Yat Cho. His Lordship said -This is a claim for $1,000 culation is very much smaller than that of mavigated in a seamonlike and proper manner. the subscription griffing. Mr. Heinrich's Derby Inspr. Mann. 4545555 33 422545 26 222255 21—30 by the defendants at No 20. Wing Lok Street from the 16th October to the lat December last and for and in respect of the needless arrest and detention of the plaintiff on the 1st and 2nd December under a warrant of this Court. The facts of the case, which are not disputed, are as follows: -On or about May 27th last one Leung Yan Kam, a Ohinese official, hired two rooms in the defendant's boarding house, the Tai Loi Chau. He lived there until 30th July following, when he was joined by the plaintiff, her child and a female Yesterday evening the whole of Saigon was attendant. From that date they occupied the same rooms and formed but one party; the family and guests were entertained from time to time. Loung Yau Kam lived there as much as his duties permitted him until some time name of Lenng Yau Kam were presented from time to time and small payments were made, the last bill, which bears the date November 28th shows a sum of $167 to be due to the defendants. On the 1st December suit 1,277 in the Summary Jurisdiction was commenced by the present defendants as owners of the Tai Loi Chan against Leung Yau Kam, who was not then the Colony, and Leung Wai Sui, the present daintiff, for the recovery of the sum of $167.66 for board and lodging as per bill of particulars annexed to the writ of summons, and on the same day an application, supported by the declaration of the said Choi Sui Hing, was made to the acting Puisne Judge for a warrant to arrest the said Lenng Wai Sui under Section 16 of the Code. This was granted, she was arrested on the said day, and ordered to find security for her due appearance. She was detained at the Registry until 7 p.m. on that day, then removed and kept in quatody all night, the enext day she was brought back to the Registry, and having found security she was released about noon. The case was heard before me on the 14th day of December, when judgment was given for the defendant Young Wai Sui with costs. On Decomber 23rd the present action was entered. The plaintiff as regards the arrest and detention of the 1 th and 2nd December states that it was needless and improper because she never was indebted to grand stand does not appear to progress very Professor Valexie he called himself-who gave the masters of the Toi Lui Chau boarding house. she never contracted with them or promised or undertook to pay them anything, that to ing out of some iron work from home, and balloon taking up too much time, so that it was the knowledge of the defendants she is and was at the time the wife of Leun. They state that they Hather than be witnesses to such an awful | acted in good faith, believing they had a just claim against her, and acted without any malice. It is needless for me to say that whatever dauts cannot in any way bind the plantiff, and the defendants must justify their action and defence on the alleged promise of the present plaintiff to become responsible for and to pay the debt of the said Laung Yau Kam. To prove

CANTON NOTES.

FROM NATION PAPERS. Sight por his recently been very provident in the city among children. This is owing to the weather having long been dry and the want of rain, but no fatal cases have been recorded. Some time ago a notification was issued to the public by the Governor requesting that all residents in the city should subscribe to a fund to ongage nourtain number of soldiers in each of their stroots to keep away robbers. In connection with this the Nanhoi and Pau Yu Magistrates have been directed to post up a second proclamation to the effect that His Excellency will be present on the parade ground to see the drills of these private soldiers. It goes on to request the people to be prepared for his inspection. Several days ago a secondral protonded that he was Chan Pak-to, the recent third successful candidate in the trionnial examination, and went to some ancestral temples to worship in order to get cumshaws from the people, but he was discovered to be an impostor and brought before the Weishow magistrate, by whom he was formally charged. His real name is To Pak-to. Intelligence has reached Canton from Sam Shui the native place of Admiral Chang Shiuchang, announcing that the dan hter-in-law of His Excellency gave birth to a son on the 26th ultimo. On the same day of the following month many officials will go to his yaman to celebrate the birth.

> NOW ON SALE. IMPRESAL QUARTO. NGLISHAND CHINESE DICTIONARY WITH THE PUSTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.

An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both principle hitherto attained. The typography lisplays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously uttained and dispensing with those vast margins and yacant spaces which have heretofors characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the rast scope of the work the ollowing facts are submitted for consideration:-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16.000 Chinese characters; and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and apwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, dospite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely remires examples to display the various applientions and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hithert, pub-For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to it; pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to al Europeans residing in China, and to the natives hamselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. no parties resident in England and interested
